

LOST AND FOUND

(The Parables from S. Luke, Chapter 15)

Chorus:

Come and share my joy and happiness!
Friends and neighbours come around!
Dance and eat and just enjoy yourselves!
What I'd lost has now been found!
What I'd lost has now been found!

1. Once a shepherd had a hundred sheep,
one went wandering off alone;
leaving all the others grazing there,
he found it and brought it home – and he said:
2. Once a woman had a chain of coins,
one fell off and rolled from sight;
with a mop and brush she cleaned the house
and found it with a light – and she said:
3. Once a father had a wayward son,
took his share and went away;
when he'd spent it all on useless things,
came home: what would father say? – and he said:
4. When we hear the stories Jesus told,
they all make it very plain:
even those who sometimes do get lost
God welcomes back again – and he says:
