

A Nursery Rhyme Mass for All Ages: Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Michael Grimmitt

In a lively manner

$\text{♩} = 110$

Glo-ry in the high-est to the God of heaven!

The first system of the musical score is in 4/4 time, key of D major. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by the lyrics 'Glo-ry in the high-est to the God of heaven!'. The piano accompaniment consists of a treble and bass clef with chords and moving lines.

Peace to all your peo - ple through earth be given; Migh - ty God and Fa - ther,

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line has the lyrics 'Peace to all your peo - ple through earth be given; Migh - ty God and Fa - ther,'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

thanks and praise we bring, Sing - ing al - le - l - u - y - as to our Heav'n - ly King.

The third system continues the musical score. The vocal line has the lyrics 'thanks and praise we bring, Sing - ing al - le - l - u - y - as to our Heav'n - ly King.'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

Je - sus Christ is ri - sen, God the Fa - ther's Son:

The fourth system concludes the musical score. The vocal line has the lyrics 'Je - sus Christ is ri - sen, God the Fa - ther's Son:'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

Copyright © 2003 Michael Grimmitt: for use contact mhgrimmitt@holytrinityamblecote.org.uk

Copyright © 2003 by Michael Grimmitt

With the Ho - ly Spi - rit, you are Lord a - lone! Lamb once kill'd for sin - ners, all our guilt to bear, Show us now your m-er-c-y, now re - ceive our prayer.

Christ the world's true Sa-viour, High and Ho-ly One,

Seat-ed now and reign-ing from your Fath-er's throne: Lord and God, we praise You;

high-est heav'n a-dores: In the Fa-ther's gl-o-r-y, all the praise be yours!