

SIMON PETER! SIMON PETER!

1. Peter was a fisherman who lived in Galilee:
every day and every night he set sail on the sea.
One day when he'd come ashore Jesus came to say:
'Simon Peter! Simon Peter! Come and follow me.'

Chorus:

'You're the rock on which I'll build my Church
to last for ever and a day.
Feed my sheep and always keep them safe
so they follow in my way.'

2. 'Who do people say I am? – just tell me what you've heard.'
'Some say you're a prophet whose come to preach God's word.'
'Peter, tell me what you think.' – 'God's own Son on earth.'
'Simon Peter! Simon Peter! Now I know your worth.'
3. On the day that Jesus said he'd suffer and he'd die,
Peter cried, 'It must not be – I see no reason why.'
Jesus turned to him and said, 'Listen to me, friend:
Simon Peter! Simon Peter! Death is not the end.'
4. On a distant mountain top in dazzling light so clear,
Jesus shone with radiance, two prophets then drew near.
Peter spoke up for the rest, 'Wish they could have stayed.'
'Simon Peter! Simon Peter! Do not be afraid!.'
5. Three times he denied him, denied him through and through;
'No! it was not me with him, he's not a man I knew.'
Then he heard them quietly, words that seemed to be:
'Simon Peter! Simon Peter! Keep on loving me.'
