

The Lord looks down upon the earth (Psalm 65)

Michael Grimmitt

Cantor

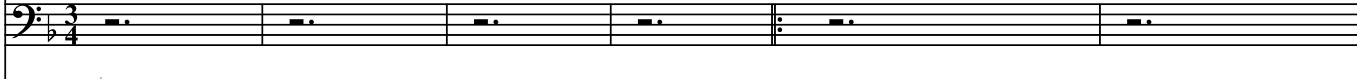

1. The Lord looks down up - on the earth he's
2. He vis - its all cre - at - ed things and
3. He crowns the year with bo - un - ty and

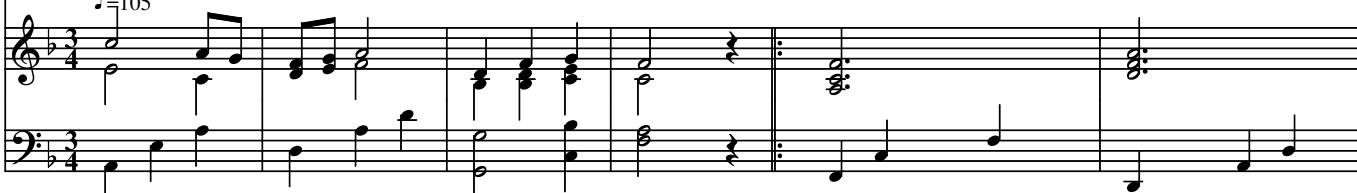

S.A.

T.B.

Keyboard

♩ = 105

fash-ioned with his hand; the moun-tain peaks, the coast-al plains, the sea and all the land. h - e cares for all he's made; he fills the streams with wa - ter and nur-tures each wheat blade. He - bless - es what it yields, the des - ert past - ures in the wild, the hills and all the fields. Th - e still the rag - ing of the waves and calms the na - tion's fear: the morn - ing and the smooths the land with gen - tle rain, each ridge he lev - els down, and fills it full of va - lleys are all cloth'd in corn, vast flocks on mea - dows graze; the land, be - decked with

Chorus:

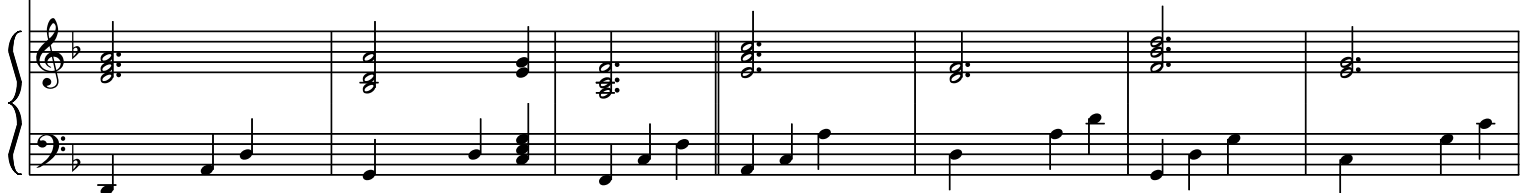

ev'n-ing sing when mir - ac - les ap - pear. Glo - ry and praise to him! Glo - ry and praise to him!
 go - od-ness with crops up - on the ground.
 bl - e-ssing, shouts out with joy and praise.

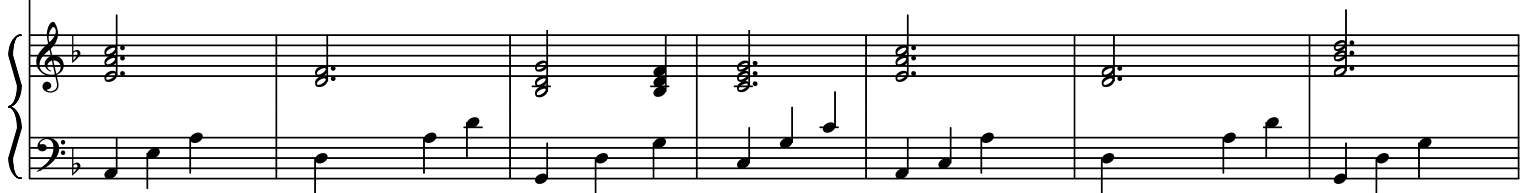

Chorus:

Vocal Line

Glo - ry and praise to him! We bless his name! Hon - our and wor-ship him! Ho - nour and wor-ship him! Hon - our and wor-ship him! Ev-er the same!

