

THIS IS THE DAY
(Psalm 118 – Easter Day Praise)

1. This is the day that the Lord God has made let's rejoice and be glad in it now.
Give thanks to Him for the good he has done;
let's rejoice that His love has no end.

Chorus:

Christ has been raised!
We have been saved!
His victory has been won!
His work has now been done!
Christ has been raised!
We have been saved!
Rejoice and praise the Lord!
Christ has been raised!

2. It is God's power that has saved me from death;
by His hand He has raised me to life.
I shall not die but shall live and proclaim all the good that the Lord has achieved.
3. The stone that the builders rejected as poor has become the most valued of all.
Give thanks to God for the marvellous way
He has made Christ our cornerstone.

(A Psalm traditionally sung on Easter Sunday but equally suitable for celebrating Sunday, the Day of Resurrection and the first day of the week.)
